

İpek Tohumcu attracts great attention in Vancouver Fashion Week

Frequently mentioned by its unique style and being a well-known name in Turkey, İpek Tohumcu attracted great attention in her closing fashion show in Canada Vancouver Fashion Week in 23rd March.

Exhibiting collections easily adaptable from day to night under her own brand name, combining hard and fluent materials together, İpek Tohumcu is one of the important names in the fashion world, who is featured with her outstanding designs and asymmetrical emphasis, and she performed a fashion show in Canada Vancouver Fashion Week. Performing her closing fashion show on the night of 23rd March, the designer preferred to exhibit her elegant designs with 30 models. In this collection of two main groups, leather and fabric combined (leather pattern) coats, jacket and skirt suits and nightdresses attracted great attention.

Stating that she interviewed with many pressmen after the show, which is also highly admired by the world fashion editors, İpek Tohumcu adds, 'That is an interesting memory of me. Our biographies were delivered to the media earlier. One Chinese journalist read about that my grandfather used to be a silk producer and was one of the first people going to China during the Ottomans.

Therefore, he wanted to make an interview with me on this issue. Besides, I have many positive articles from these bloggers.

Vancouver made a TV interview with me and the English Vogue published my collection on their website.' She came back to her hometown with a great satisfaction, reminding us that she was the only Turkish designer in this organization.

görüşmeler gerçekleştirdiğini ifade eden ünlü modacı İpek Tohumcu; "İlginç bir anım oldu.

Biyografilerimiz önceden medyaya dağıtılmıştı.

Bir Çinli gazeteci dedemin Osmanlı

zamanında ilk Çine giden ipek üretici olduğunu okumuş bu konuda röportaj yaptı.

Ayrıca bloggerlardan olumlu yazılar geldi. Vancouver TV röportaj yaptı. İngiliz Vogue sitesinde koleksiyonumu yayınlandı" sözleriyle gösterilen ilgiden oldukça memnun yurda dönen modacı, organizasyonda yer alan tek Türk modacının da kendisi olduğunu hatırlatı-
